Diocesan Pilgrimages

Holy Land 16-25 May 2017

A Diocesan pilgrimage to the Holy Land will travel on the above dates. This will be ably led by the experienced husband and wife team of the Venerable Paul Hughes, Archdeacon of Bedford, and The Revd Canon Liz Hughes, Senior Chaplain at London Luton Airport.

As a diocese we have a huge collective experience of organising and running pilgrimages in collaboration with our Travel Agent McCabe and we sincerely believe that this programme is our best yet.

The pilgrimage will spend five nights in Jerusalem and four in Tiberias by The Sea of Galilee. We will visit many of the principal holy sites including the Mount of Olives, The Garden of Gethsemane, The Via Dolorosa, The Church of the Holy Sepulchre, Bethlehem, Nazareth, The Church of the Beatitudes and Tabgha (The Church of the Loaves and Fishes).

The Friday in Jerusalem allows the choice of a free day in the Old City or a full day tour by coach to Masada, Qumran and the Dead Sea. A boat cruise on the Sea of Galilee is also included.

The full brochure and booking form can be viewed/downloaded from

<http://www.stalbanspilgrimages.org.uk/fpilgrimages.html>

A professional English-speaking guide will be present throughout the pilgrimage and the hotels have been carefully selected and are well known to us. Travel is by luxury air-conditioned coach.

Those travelling alone and / or for the first time are very welcome, and a supportive friendly and safe setting is assured. Parish groups are encouraged! The pilgrimage is fully ecumenical and we warmly welcome friends from all Christian denominations.

Anyone interested (without obligation) is warmly invited to an informal meeting at St Margaret's Church Parish Centre Streatley on Saturday 8 October @10.30 am.

It would be very helpful in estimating numbers if anyone hoping to attend the above event could please email: pilgrimage@stalbans.anglican.org Full directions and a map will be sent by return.

Rome and Assisi 11-18 September 2017

You may also be interested in a further Diocesan pilgrimage to Rome and Assisi from 11 to 18 September next year led by Canon Dennis Stamps, Rector of Harpenden, previously Director of Ministry for the Diocese of St Albans.

This eight day tour reaches the heart of early western Christianity as it follows the final ministry of St Paul in Rome and also explores the lives of the saints and Christian communities in the 'Eternal City'. A visit to St Peters and the Vatican City, including the Sistine Chapel, is included.

Travelling on to Orvieto, we visit key sites in this pictureque and historic Etruscan town and then journey onwards to Assisi. A full day tour is offered here, with visits to the Basilica of St Francis, where we celebrate the Eucharist, and also to the Basilica of St Clare and St Damiano. The Sunday is a free day in Assisi, to explore at leisure.

There is a fair amount of walking involved in this pilgrimage, but it is considered to be accessible to able-bodied pilgrims. Please enquire of the leaders or through McCabe if you have any concerns. More details are again available on the Pilgrimages website as above.

Why gardener Alan digs the Real Advent Calendar

Alan Titchmarsh has welcomed the launch of the 2016 Real Advent Calendar, describing it as 'a great idea'. Each Real Advent Calendar comes with a free 28 page copy of the Christmas story in the box, 24 Fairtrade chocolates and sales of the calendar support charitable causes.

David Marshall, from The Meaningful Chocolate Company which makes the calendars, said: "Three years ago we saw survey research which showed that knowledge of the Christmas story was fading. Among 5-7 year olds, 36% didn't know whose birthday was celebrated at Christmas.

"Among adults, less than 12% knew the full nativity story and 51% said that the birth of Jesus was irrelevant to their Christmas. As a result of this survey we launched The Real Advent Calendar hoping to help adults and children engage with the Christmas story for the full 24 days of Advent."

More than half a million Real Advent Calendars have been sold, which means over a million people have read the Real Advent Calendar Christmas story, many for the first time. This year the story is illustrated by award winning artist Alida Massari and includes activities and challenges.

From the charitable donations, the calendar has helped equip a baby clinic in Kenya and supported charities such as Traidcraft Exchange and The Children's Society.

Alan Titchmarsh said: "The Real Advent Calendar is a great idea. Not only does it raise money for good causes and is made from Fairtrade Chocolate but is also tells the Christmas story."
