Tuesday 16th October 7.30pm. Women's Suffrage. As we approach the 100th Anniversary of Women's Suffrage, Janet Bird will present a talk on the campaign to win the vote & the Suffragettes. Meeting Room.

Key Amnesty!

Over the years some of the keys to the Church and Hall have gone missing. We would very much like to find these keys. If you think you have one of these keys please could you let Janet Oldham know or return the key (anonymously if you wish) to Janet or one of the Churchwardens.

From the PCC (9/9/18)

Mary Penny was appointed PCC Secretary by unanimous vote.

The composition of the Standing Committee was agreed to be the following five Office Holders: The Vicar (currently Rev Canon Jo Loveridge), the Churchwardens, (Julia Gough and Colin Bird), the Parish Administrator (Martin Penny), and Secretary to the PCC, (Mary Penny).

Geoff and Kath Oates were welcomed to the meeting when they talked us through their time last winter when they visited Anglican Churches around the county to share in varied outreach programmes both in church buildings and beyond.

The Ministry Team and Standing Committee will study this further as preparation for the Worship part of the PPC meeting on November 9th.

The Tower Clock

Our apologies that the clock is not working. It came from the old workhouse and was installed when our tower was built in 1905.

It remains the property of the Town Council and they are working with the engineers to understand why recent repairs have not resolved the problem.

Bible Sunday

The end of this month, 28th October, is Bible Sunday. If you are looking for resources for either yourself and other adults, or youth, or children, you will find them free at the Bible Society's website:

<https://www.biblesociety.org.uk/get-involved/bible-sunday>.

The notes are adaptable, so you can easily pick and mix the resources that best suit your context.

'Welcome and Inclusion'

- a practical day exploring our welcome in church and inclusion of people living with mental ill-health

"The subject of mental illness tends to bring out a complex humanity in people; in others it hits a deep vein of fear and prejudice. Far more people than I had realised conceptualize mental illness as a spiritual flaw or shortcoming in character."

Key Redfield Jamison - 'An Unquiet Mind'

The day will offer an opportunity to hear from those with a wealth of experience, and consider how best practice can be applied in our churches.

Saturday 6th October 2018
9.15 am - 3.00 pm
at Norton, St George's Church & the Parish Centre
(Common View, Letchworth SG6 1DA)

- Opening welcome and introduction by the Bishop of Hertford, The Rt Revd Michael Beasley
- Voices of 'experts by experience' - a former patient and a carer - what it's like to live with mental ill-health and to be a carer to someone living with mental ill-health
- The Revd Richard Allen - Spiritual Care Manager, Mental Health Services, Hertfordshire Partnership University NHS Foundation Trust

Focused workshops will cover different, active models of welcome and inclusion of people with mental ill-health, including:

- ⇒ Healthy Living Communities
- ⇒ Self-Help Groups
- ⇒ Why it's important for the church to support people with mental ill-health

Cost of the conference:

- £6.00 per person
- £10.00 per church group (2+ people)

 Please bring a packed lunch with you, drinks will be available throughout the day ***

Please book directly through Eventbrite, here:

MESSY CHURCH

WORSHIP STUDY MORNING

Saturday 6 October 9.30am - 1pm
St Mary's Church, Baldock SG7 5AD

- How can we make worship in Messy Church accessible without dumbing down?
- How can we engage parents, grandparents, and people of all ages, as well as young children?
- How can we connect Messy Church worship to art and games in ways that enhance the experience and help us explore the stories and experience of worship together?

This morning will focus specifically on Messy Church, but there will be principles that people doing any kind of All-Age Worship may find useful.

Cost is £10 (Clergy & Readers may use their training allowance).
Volunteers free.
The church is offering a light lunch after the event, for a small additional fee. Booking essential, details on Eventbrite page.

Book your place online:

Baby Loss Awareness Week takes place from 9th to 15th October every year. It's an opportunity for parents, their families and friends to acknowledge and remember their precious babies who have died. It is led by Sands in collaboration with over 60 charities in the UK.

Baby Loss Awareness Week is an opportunity:

- for bereaved parents and families across the world to commemorate their babies' lives
- to break the silence around pregnancy or baby loss in the UK

- to ensure all bereaved parents in the UK get the best possible care, wherever they live, when they need it

Pregnancy and baby loss is often a taboo subject. You can help to break the silence around baby loss by talking to your friends, family and colleagues about Baby Loss Awareness Week, wearing a special pin badge, turning UK pink and blue and lighting a candle on 15th October.

that such sharing brings?

HOST UK arranges for international students to enjoy brief homestays with UK hosts, one day, a weekend or, over the festive period-a three day visit. We need more hosts so that a smile such as Marine's can spread across many more faces...and across our fragile world.
