and all these things shall be added unto you.

but by every word
that proceeds from the mouth of God.

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God,
by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church
is governed and sanctified:
hear our prayer which we offer for all your
faithful people,
that in their vocation and ministry
they may serve you in holiness and truth
to the glory of your name;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Luke 10. 38-end

Now as they went on their way, he entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. ³⁹She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying. ⁴⁰But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, 'Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me.' ⁴¹But the Lord answered her, 'Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; ⁴²there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her.'

Post Communion Collect

Grant, O Lord, we beseech you, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered
by your governance,
that your Church may joyfully serve you in all
godly quietness;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Fellowship and Discussion Group Monday 18 July at 6:30.

Everyone is most welcome.

We are reading and discussing articles from Godbothering by Rhidian Brook; Thoughts, 2000-2020 - As heard on 'Thought for the Day' on BBC Radio 4

- Why bother with God?
- Do you know what matters in life?
- What are the limits of kindness?
- Why doesn't God intervene?
- What are you worth?

For twenty years, bestselling novelist Rhidian Brook has pondered such questions on Radio 4's Thought for the Day, encouraging, nudging, sometimes provoking millions into thinking about the possibility of a God who is intimately and cosmically involved in the human story. Over 100 of his Thoughts are presented here, forming a kind of alternative history of the 21st century, and inviting us to reflect on the deeper spiritual dimensions of our lives and times.
